Meat/Ticket Draws

The format for the draws has changed in keeping with the license. Having said that please have patience with our volunteers who are doing their best to run these events. These people volunteer their time so that we may have an enjoyable afternoon. Take time out to thank them and always approach them in a positive manner.

We try our best to remember everything that is going on but sometimes things slip our mind. Drop us an email or leave a note and we will try our best to get them in the newsletter.
